Nominated by Acclamation

JOSEPH B. BENNETT

Named for Congress By Ninth District Republicans

The Most Enthusiastic Convention Ever Held in This City

JUDGE J. B. BENNETT.

The Republican Congressional Convention of the Ninth District was called to order at the Courthouse in this city at 11 a. m. yesterday by Judge W. G. Dearing of Fleming, who had been Chairman of the Cynthiana Convention.

Judge Dearing stated that the object was to nominate a candidate for Congress in place of the Hon. Sam J. Pugh, who had declined the nomination tendered him at Cynthiana; and in an effective speech he reviewed the successes of Republican principles and the utter failure of Democratic promises.

Hon. Harding Gilbert of Carter was named as Temporary Chairman, who thanked the Convention in a few well chosen remarks.

In another column Sheriff Roberson gives notice of the special election to vote $25,000 in bonds for a much-needed County Infirmary. If the people of Mason county desire to save money, the erection of modern Infirmary Buildings will do it, and every practical business man will vote for the bond issue.

About fifty feet of the sewer ditch in Commerce street South of Second caved in last night. That part of the street is made ground and the jar of passing trains on the C. and O. is likely the cause of the ground giving way. It was fortunate it occurred at night after the workmen had left the trench.

A false alarm was sent in last night by an excited citizen of East Fourth who thought his neighbor's house was afire. Mr. John Davidson of East Fifth street thought a new stove yesterday and when a fire was started it created such a smell that it made his neighbor panic and he imagined the whole hillside was being consumed. Hence the dead run the boys had for nothing.

The District Meeting of the Christian Endeavor, now in three days session at Ashland, will be augmented today by the following. They leave on the 1:30 train this afternoon—Rev. Colonel John D. Littlejohn of Grayson was made Temporary Secretary.

There being no contests, the usual Committees on Credentials and Resolutions were dispensed with.

The Temporary organization was made permanent, and the Convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for Congress.

Upon the call of the roll, when Lewis county was reached, Hon. William C. Halbert of Vanceburg, in behalf of the 2,500 Republicans of the State of Lewis, presented the name of the Hon. Joseph B. Bennett of Greenup—Mr. Halbert's speech being received with hearty applause.

Mr. Sam T. Hickman of Mason moved that the nomination of Judge Bennett be declared by acclamation, which was seconded by Mr. H. B. Bryson of Nicholas.

And Judge Bennett won unanimously and with a whoop.

Being presented, Judge Bennett accepted the nomination in a stirring address. He had hoped the honor would go to some other, but he never shirked a duty imposed by his party. He believed in honesty in politics as well as in honesty in business, and assured the Republicans of the District that he would use every honorable means to achieve success in November.

Judge Bennett's sincere utterances brought forth unstinted applause, and the enthusiasm of the delegates gave bright promise for glorious results.

At the conclusion of his address to Convention adjourned.

Her son, John, now a soldier in the Philippine Islands, is cut off without a cent. It is said that the will is to be contested.

What the Appellate Court Said in Reversing the Case

The Court of Appeals recently reversed the suit of Robert W. Dryden v. the H. E. Pogue Distillery Company, the opinion, delivered by Judge Barker, being as follows—

Master and Servant—Personal Injury—Use of Dangerous Machinery—Ignorance of Servant—Peremptory Instructions.—In an action by plaintiff alleging the loss of a hand by machinery in the use of which he was inexperienced, and wherein he testified that he was directed by the superintendent of the defendant company to place himself under the orders of the miller, who put him to work in a dangerous place of which he was ignorant, with insufficient light, and who assured him it was safe to do the work, and in doing which his hand was caught in the roller and crushed so as to render amputation necessary, it was error in the Court at the conclusion of plaintiff's testimony to give the Jury peremptory instructions to find for the defendant.

Allan D. Colo. and Frank P. O'Donnell were the Attorneys for appellant; Thomas R. Phister, Pogue & Pogue for appellee.

"TO DIE AT DAWN."

The escape from the counterfeiters cave and the terrific ride for life as performed by Miss Elsie Crescy upon the back of a trained thoroughbred horse is perhaps the most exciting scene introduced in any play of modern times and is a principal feature in E. Lawrence Lee's monster production of "To Die at Dawn," a story of the Kentucky mountains, which is the attraction at The Washington Wednesday, October 12th.

TO WEAK WOMEN

OF MAYSVILLE AND VICINITY

We Make the Following Proposition.

"There are hundreds of women in this vicinity who are dragging themselves through life in pain and misery, without vitality, strength or health," said Mr. Pecor. "They get no happiness out of life and are just in a condition to be attacked by almost any disease. They need a vitality-making and strength-creating tonic."

"Now, at our expense, we want to ask every such woman to try our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, but no oil or grease. It is delicious to take, creates a healthy appetite, makes pure, rich, red blood and gives strength and vigor to every organ of the body better than any medicine we have ever sold in our store, and when a woman is in this condition it makes life worth living. When we say 'at our expense,' we mean that if the medicine you buy from us and pay for does not benefit you—we will refund every cent of it cheerfully, and thus you try it at our expense."

Miss Mary A. Woodward of Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I think Vinol is the best remedy in the world for a weak, tired, worn-out system. I was just in that condition when I commenced to take Vinol. It gave me new life and energy, and after using three bottles I felt like a different woman. I feel well and strong and better than I have for years. I believe Vinol will do much more than is claimed for it." I can only ask Mayville women to try Vinol on our guarantee. John C. Pecor, Druggist.

ANOTHER BIG HIT.

The DePew-Burdette Stock Co. presented another new play last night. The bill was "The Country Boy," a clean cut comedy drama which gave Mr. DePew a good opportunity to display his talents as a comedian. He kept the audience roaring all of the time. Mr. Burdette as "Loan Star" scored a big hit. The scenery and costumes were new and gorgeous. The specialties as usual were all good. Mr. Frank Lynch in rime singing and dancing won great applause as also did Mr. Thomas L. Brower in illustrated songs assisted by Mr. George Woods. The bill tonight will be that grand old play of "Rip Van Winkle" with all special scenery and electrical effects.

TWELFTH NIGHT.

Miss Charlotte Burnett who is being "starred" by Manager Joseph Shipman as "Viola" has, at last, realized the ambition of her life. When a child she loved the stage and everything pertaining to it, but most of all she loved the bewitching "Viola" who, in the words of the poet "Never told her love, but let concealment like a worm in the bud feed on her damask cheek." That is why Miss Burnett thoroughly realizes every phase of this many-sided character. Her support is excellent. Mr. George Seybolt as Malvolio, displays the spirit of true comedy. The same may be said of Mr. J. F. McCarthy as Sir Toby Belch. A host of other comedy characters make this performance far more laughable than the most uproarious farce comedy of the modern school of playwrights. At the Washington, Monday October 10th. Sale of seats, for subscribers only, opens at the box office, this afternoon from 1 to 4.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months. I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. —LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

People on the ridges and up small streams are driving their stock to water.
Somebody got up a race and Thad N. Fearis was elected School Trustee in this District.
The G. A. R. Comrades were so busy they forgot the regular meeting on Campground Saturday the 1st inst.
The foot bridges at the Mary D. Barkley farm and Fearis are put up again, having been washed away 5th of June, 1903.

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema.

Could Not Hold Her. She Tore Her Face and Arms.

Cuticura Saved Her Life, So Mother Says.

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cold creams and all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good, in fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and any one suffering as she did, I should advise them to give Cuticura a fair trial." MRS. G. A. CONRAD, Lisbon, N. H., Feb. 7, 1898.

Five years later, viz., Feb. 23, 1903, Mrs. Conrad writes:

"It is with pleasure that I can inform you that the cure has been permanent as it is now six years since she was cured, and there has been no return of the disease since, and I have advised a lot of friends to use the Cuticura Remedies in all diseases of the skin."

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure and purifier of emollients, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted and pimply skin and scalp humours, eczemas, rashes and irritations.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 20). Ointment, 30c. Soap, 25c. Depot: London, 27 Chancery Lane, E.C. 4, England.
